LIFE CONDITION IN THE CAMP

■ First, the prisoners were mainly Polish people.

The prisoners were forced to cut the trees, build sheds and huts

■ Then, the prisoners were also from different countries: Russia, Belarusian, Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Rumania, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Yugoslavia and Spain...

■ Conditions in the camp were brutal.

• Prisoners worked hours a day, lays a week. They lived in wooden barracks with no _____, no ____, no ____ and no ____.

- *The lack of proper, warm clothes was a huge problem because winter was severe.
- *A lot of people died of starvation (hunger).

■ Horror...

began in June 1944.

• Camp also killed sick or injured prisoners with lethal injections.
